Congregational Song Praise, my soul, the King of heaven

1 Praise, my soul, the King the Heaven, To his feet thy tribute bring; Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, Who like thee his praise should sing? Praise Him! Praise the everlasting King	2 Father-like he tends and spares us; Well our feeble frame he knows, In his hands he gently bears us, Rescues us from all our foes. Praise him! Widely as his mercy flows.	3 Angels in the heights adore him, Ye behold him face to face; Sun and moon bow down before him: Dwellers all in time and space, Praise him! Praise with us the God of grace.

ENFIELD CITADEL BAND

Enfield Citadel Band was founded in Tottenham, in 1892 and soon established a reputation as one of the Salvation Army's leading musical groups. In 1972 with the merging of two Salvation Army Corps, the band moved to Enfield, London and assumed its present title. There, as before, the band's principal purpose has remained – to proclaim the Gospel message within the Corps and in open-air activities in the same way as Salvation Army bands worldwide. In addition to service within its own locality, the Band travels extensively to present its ministry. It has performed in most of the major concert venues in the UK and has shared programmes with some of the leading contesting bands including Black Dyke, Williams Fairey and Fodens. Visits to Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Australia, New Zealand, Canada and the USA have also been undertaken. The band has also regularly been involved in broadcasting and recording activities.

CONDUCTOR JONATHAN W CORRY

Having received initial cornet lessons from his father, Jonathan quickly progressed, took trumpet lessons with Paul Young (a former Enfield bandsman) and became Principal of the National Youth Orchestra of Great Britain. He studied Trumpet at the RNCM followed by a post-graduate degree in conducting. An avid bandsman, Jonathan has a previous connection as guest soloist with Enfield Citadel Band in 2004.

A fifth generation Salvationist. Jonathan hails from the Belfast Temple Corps where he was Deputy Bandmaster prior to moving to Enfield Citadel to facilitate new employment as brass co-ordinator for Brent Music Service.
